

BENEFITS OF EFFECTIVE IMPLEMENTATION OF COMPETITION REFORMS IN BANGLADESH

Date: July 02 (Monday), 2012

Venue: Bakul-Chameli, Ruposhi Bangla Hotel

AGENDA

- 1630 - 1700 Registration & Tea
Opening Session
- 1700 - 1705 Welcome Speech by Professor Syed Munir Khasru, Chairman, Institute for Policy, Advocacy & Governance (I-PAG), Bangladesh
- 1705 - 1710 Remarks by DFID Representative
- 1710 - 1725 Comments by Pradeep S. Mehta, Secretary General , CUTS International, India
- 1725 - 1800 Keynote Presentation on “Challenges of Competition Reforms in Bangladesh” by Dr. Md Mozibur Rahman, Chairman, Bangladesh Tariff Commission
- 1800 - 1900 Plenary Session
- Session to be presided & moderated* by Mr. Shaikh Md. Wahid-uz-Zaman, Principal Secretary to the Hon’ble Prime Minister
- Role of Competition reforms in socio-economic development in developing countries*
- Pradeep S. Mehta, Secretary General, CUTS International, India
- How can competition reforms be an opportunity for economic reforms in developing countries*
-William Kovacic, Professor at George Washington Law School and Former Commissioner at Federal Trade commission, USA
- Open Floor Discussion*
- 1900 - 1930 Closing Session
- 1930 - 2030 Networking Dinner