

Grassroots Interface Meetings: Phase II June-August 2009

In June-August 2009, Grassroots Interface Meetings (GIMs) will be conducted in all the project territories. The main objective of the Phase II meetings is to discuss the possible solutions to the systemic problems faced by consumers. These systemic problems were recorded during Phase I GIMs. Consumers from rural/semi-urban areas would participate in the meetings.

The sessions will be conducted in the presence of local legislatures/public representatives. Apart from the project staff, representatives from the electricity utilities and energy/electricity regulatory commissions would participate as resource persons and educate consumers.
