

Meeting with the Chief Secretary and other relevant Secretaries, Government of Rajasthan on Good and Better Jobs

Monday, April 29, 2019

Background and Agenda

CUTS International, with the support of Ford Foundation, is currently implementing a project titled 'Strengthening the Discourse on Economic Policy to Generate Good and Better Jobs in India'. Based on evidence from the field, the project aims to generate knowledge about necessary conditions for creating 'Good and Better Jobs' in India and relay it to policy influencers and policy makers to strengthen communication amongst them. The knowledge being generated is relevant to multiple government departments, chief among them being labor, industry, power and skills. Health and education departments will also benefit from the insights as these two sectors are also crucial to the development of productive human capital stock.

The presentation by CUTS International will focus on the 'pilot' conducted on the Textile and Apparel sector in Bhilwara. It will entail mainly insights on jobs and industry pain points and will seek inputs, suggestions and reactions from relevant officials on the findings and way forward.

The agenda is as follows:
