WORKSHOP ON

TECHNOLOGY, STANDARDS, REGULATION AND ETHICS

February 1, 2024 | 14:00–17:30 IST | Hybrid Event

In person at: 📍International Institute of Information Technology Bangalore

REGISTER NOW

Visit: bit.ly/6GWKSHP

The research consortium comprising the International Institute of Information Technology, Bangalore (IIIT-Bangalore), Consumer Unity & Trust Society (CUTS), Australian Risk Policy Institute (ARPI) is conducting a workshop on the project titled 'Ethical 6G – Identifying Elements of Ethical Framework for 6G and Creating Opportunities for India and Australia'. The project was supported by the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) under the Australia-India Cyber and Critical Technology Partnership (AICCTP) Grant.

This workshop will present the findings from the project and bring together diverse expertise including policymakers, academics and industry representatives to discuss different aspects of 6G, including technology design and risks, ethical and regulatory considerations.

Agenda

14:00-14:10	Welcome address: Dr Debabrata Das, Director, IIIT-Bangalore
14:10-14:30	Key findings on Technologies and Standards: Prof V Sridhar, IIIT-Bangalore
14:30-15:30	Panel Discussion 1: 6G Technology, Standards, Vulnerabilities and Risks
15:30-15:50	Key findings on Regulations and Ethics: Ujjwal Kumar, CUTS
15:50-16:50	Panel Discussion 2: Ethical/Regulatory Framework for 6G
16:50-17:00	Concluding Remarks, Prof V Sridhar, IIIT-Bangalore
17:00-17:30	High Tea for in-person attendees

SCAN QR CODE
TO REGISTER